LEAGUE PLANK TO SUIT ALL FACTIONS

Reported To Have Been Framed By G. O. P. Platform Builders—May Be Night Session

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, June 10.—After an all night conference the Resolutions Committee of the Republican National Convention, tentatively agreed on the platform plank submitted by Senator Crane yesterday, providing for ratification of the League of Nations with reservations.

Chicago, June 10.—A League of Nations plank, declared by leaders to be acceptable to everybody, was unanimously adopted today by the Republican Resolutions Committee, apparently ending all threats of a party split over the League issue.

The plank upholds the Senate in refusing to ratify the treaty of Versailles, declares any future international peace understanding must square with American traditions, and omits an affirmative declaration for the League which had been urged by the mild reservationists.

As originally drafted weeks ago the Elihu Root plank was revised after Senator Lodge appeared in the committee room and declared if the mild reservationists proposal was accepted he would go on the floor and fight it.

The plank was said by subcommittee members to be wholly acceptable to former Senator Crane, of Massachusetts, the mild reservation leader, and its acceptance removed the only obstacle to speeding to conclusion the work of the National Convention.

The complete platform will be taken to the convention late this afternoon and it was said a night session might be called to begin hearing nominating speeches.

While awaiting the report of the platform committee, the National Convention held a brief session this morning and much to the disappointment of the galleries, took a recess until four o'clock this afternoon. There was consideration of plans to go ahead with nominating speeches while awaiting the platform report but this was abandoned in the face of objections.

Johnson Claims Plank Victory

While the Root plank in the Republican national platform commends the Senate's rejection of the League of Nations, it is understood to contain a provision expressing in general terms the party's approval of some international concert for peace. It was that feature, it was said, which led the mild reservationists to accept it.

News of the agreement started lively speculation whether the chances of any presidential candidate were aided or injured by the adjustment. The generally expressed first opinion was that it would affect none except Johnson. He immediately hailed it as a victory for the principles he advocated.

Lowden, Wood, Hardin, and Butler headquarters refused to issue any statement at once on the plank.

The committee refused to give out the plank immediately but it is understood there is no specific mention of the League of Nations but an inferential reference to it in denunciation of the course of the President in the conduct of foreign affairs.

Other planks in the tentative platform are understood to include a strong declaration for the protection of life and property in Mexico.

Nothing On Prohibition

It is understood the committee rejected a proposal to cover the prohibition issue under a general resolution for enforcing the 18th Amendment.

The proposal for a mandate over Armenia is condemned.

Other planks include a declaration on industrial relations with no reference to anti-strike legislation, blaming the depreciation of money values for the high cost of living; opposing government ownership of railroads, and without mentioning the cash bonus, generally expressing the party's gratitude to former service men.

Ovation For Morrow

Chicago, June 10.—The convention continues to be interested in Gov. Morrow of Kentucky. When he arose today to present the report of the Committee on Permanent Organization he received a real ovation, the first of the convention. His voice was readily heard and the delegates and dark-horse breeders looked him over with every show of interest.

WOOD'S FRIENDS CONFIDENT

Chicago, June 10.—While the Lowden forces from Kentucky, under the leadership of National Committeeman A. T. Hert, have occupied the center of the stage so far, the little band of Kentucky supporters of General Wood show far more confidence now that the result of the convention will be to their liking.

Marshall Bullitt, Sheriff W. E. Ross, Arthur Hopkins and Robert E. Wood came over to look after General Wood's interests in the Kentucky delegation. With Mr. Hert as the big boss of the Kentucky delegation, they had to take a stand on the outside.

Since the slump in Lowden's fortunes, following the revelation of the use of money in the Missouri delegation, the Wood supporters have acquired all the confidence that formerly belonged to the Lowden leaders.

They are confident in the final test that Hitchcock will put it over on Hert and point to what has already happened as proof that Hitchcock is the best strategist in the convention.

MISS RUTH CROWE DEAD

As the Daily Register goes to press, news comes from Danville of the death of Miss Ruth Crowe. The passing of Miss Ruth brings sadness to many hearts here, where she was greatly beloved, having been a teacher in Caldwell school for many years. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

ONLY TWO CANDIDATES TO DEBATE IN CASEY

Although the three candidates for the democratic nomination for congress in the 8th district were understood to have arranged another joint debate at Liberty, Casey county, the home of Private George T. Davis, for Thursday, only two went to Casey, Davis and Judge Gilbert, Col. Rippey went to the commencement of Berea College and mixed with the voters there, so it is generally understood that the series of joint debates is off.

Mr. T. J. Moberly tells The Daily Register that he did not ask Col. Rippey his position on the liquor question, as he was understood to have done. He said that Rippey's name sounded good enough for him.

COMMENCEMENT AT FOUNDATION SCHOOL

The graduating exercises of the Foundation school at Berea occurred Tuesday on the athletic field. An interesting and exciting pageant entitled "Daniel Boone" was played. About 150 Foundation students took part, representing Boone, Kenton, Guerdy, their family, the early settlers from North Carolina and many battles with the Indians.

The pageant was written by a member of the Foundation faculty after a careful study of the early history of Kentucky.

The Foundation school class, composed of 140 students, received their certificates of promotion to the higher departments at united chapel. The class will give its class day program in the dining room Thursday evening at the close of the evening meal.

10 Days To Sign Bills

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 10.—Attorney General Palmer communicated to President Wilson the informal ruling that the President has ten days after the adjournment of Congress to sign bills and resolutions. This may change the status of bills which the President killed by "pocket veto" including the water power bill and the resolution repealing most of the special war time legislation.

Union Labor Meeting

Montreal, Can., June 10.—The American Federation of Labor in annual convention today, authorized the Federation's executive council to charter the International Policemen's Union as soon as the membership of the local policemen's unions totals six thousand.

After a bitter debate a resolution was also adopted requesting the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks to eliminate the color line.

CLOSING EVENTS AT EASTERN NORMAL

Last Chapel Exercises To Be Followed By President's Reception Thursday Night

Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, the last chapel exercises by the Senior class for this term, were held. The meeting of some of the students here for the last time, was a fact apparently realized by many of those present. The President's reception Thursday night will mark one of the most important features of the closing of festivities of the year which will go down in history as a series of the most brilliant and successful in the history of the institution.

Never has there been the number of people, especially students, interested in the work nor nearly the number participating. The period of closing of the term has been a continued round of events and affairs, taxing the energy of those participating, and each seemed to vie with the other in doing his or her best. There is a degree of good fellowship reigning at this time that reflects rare credit upon the most excellent management, from the minor instructor to the president.

The President's reception Thursday night, which will be held at his house from 8 to 11 will record an event long to be remembered by those in attendance for various reasons. Never has there been the degree of fellowship and close affiliation between officer and student that has characterized the closing term of the school.

On Friday afternoon, the final business meeting of the Alumni will be held and the business for the term will be given a light review, and there in all probability will be talks of an interesting nature upon the part of several of the most active members. This will be followed on Friday night by the Alumni reception and banquet, which in point of elaborateness, promises to excel any heretofore held here. This will be attended by principally all of the members of the faculty, together with the officers, and extensive preparations have been made for it.

The presentation of intermediate certificates Wednesday was an event bringing joy to many of the diligent workers. The Hon. E. T. Franklin, president of Union College, addressed the meeting, which was largely attended.

Under Death Sentence, But Gets A New Trial

Oscar M. Johnson, in the Paris jail under sentence of death for the murder of Walter Rice, was granted a new trial by the Kentucky Court of Appeals at Frankfort, Tuesday. Johnson, who was an employee of the L. & N. railroad, shot down Rice, a fellow employee in the restaurant of Thos. Ahern, in Paris. Johnson, it was said, was in an intoxicated condition at the time, and the trouble arose over some trivial matter that angered Johnson.

Johnson was tried by a jury in the Bourbon Circuit Court and sentenced to the electric chair. The case was later taken to the Court of Appeals who Tuesday granted the condemned man a new trial on newly discovered evidence.

Flour Drops 40 Cents

Minneapolis, June 10.—The price of flour declined 40 cents at one local market today. Family patents were quoted at $14.35 to $14.85 a barrel, in car lots, in 98-pound cotton bags. A weak wheat market Wednesday was said to be the cause.

RICHMOND MAN "IN BAD" IN LOUISVILLE

The Louisville papers publish a story of the arrest there of B. C. Million, who, they say, left Richmond eight years ago. The Courier-Journal said:

"Posing as a wealthy race horse owner, B. C. Million, 31 years old, man about town, according to the detectives, was able to make an impression with women."

"Million was arrested by Detective Winchester after Mrs. May Wilkinson, stenographer, living at 806 South Fourth street, complained that he obtained a $250 diamond ring from her and $350."

"Million was supplied with telegrams which, according to Detective Winchester, were written by himself or pals. One, purporting to be from San Francisco, stated: 'Can train horses here. If nothing doing in Louisville, wire.'"

"Mrs. Wilkinson told detectives that she was impressed with Million and the telegrams, and parted with her diamond ring and money when he is said to have promised to make money for her."

"Two charges of obtaining money under false pretenses were filed against Million. The case was continued in police court until June 10, while police are investigating alleged cases in which, they say, Million may be involved. Million is said to have come to Louisville eight years ago from Richmond."

OFFICERS ELECTED AT GRAND LODGE, K. OF P.

Pineville, Ky., June 10.—The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias of Kentucky, after defeating a resolution which attempted to change the constitution, so as to deprive Past Grand Chancellors from having a voice in the proceedings of the Grand Lodge, and making provisions for the wiping out of the debt on the Pythian Home at Lexington, proceeded to elect officers.

The precedent of continuing the advancement of officers of the Grand Lodge until their election as Grand Chancellor was set aside when Senator White L. Moss, of this city, was elected Grand Prelate, defeating Dr. S. I. Alderson, of Earlington, the present Grand Master-at-Arms, who was in line for advancement.

The following were elected: Grand Chancellor, A. O. Sisk, of Earlington; Grand Vice Chancellor, Dr. J. L. Anderson, of Manchester; Prelate, White L. Moss, Pineville; Grand Keeper of Seals and Records, John W. Carter, of Lexington; Grand Master of Exchequer, B. P. Eubanks, of Bowling Green; Grand Master-at-Arms, Emil Poorman, of Louisville; Grand Inner Guard, R. M. Hunter, of Nicholasville; Grand Outer Guard, J. B. Dunkin, of Newport. The meeting next year will be held in Lexington.

Lexington, June 10.—Following the looting Tuesday night of the store of Davis & Haynes, at Fort Spring, six miles from here, Eugene Waymire, 22, and his wife, 23 years old, both of Louisville, were arrested at Versailles Wednesday. They were in an automobile and officers say the stolen goods were found in the car. Waymire said he was out of money, according to the officers, and had stolen because his wife was sick. Mrs. Waymire said they were on their way to Louisville from a visit to Illinois.

COMMENCEMENT OF MADISON HIGH SCHOOL

Stirring Address By State Supt. Colvin and Other Features of Interest

The commencement exercises of the class of 1920 of the Madison High school were held last night at the Caldwell auditorium. The whole program was good. Robert Mallory delivered a speech on "The New American." Mr. Mallory was class representative and outlined a very striking way the tributes that the new American must have to grapple with the present world situation.

State Superintendent George Colvin delivered the commencement address in a very able way. His speech was chock full of sound advice to the graduates and who were electrified by magnetic personality of the man. His subject was taken from the scriptural text, "Go and sell thy goods and give unto the poor and take up thy cross and follow me."

He interpreted the goods of the graduates as their youth, their optimism and their spirit of service. The graduates were as follows:

Walker McKinney, Walter Parks, Robert Sandlin, Edna Smith, Sallie Gentry, Zada Edwards, Robert Vandever, Robert Mallory, Ethel Stiver and James Howe.

Superintendent Howard Payne presented the diplomas. The Madison High school has had many interruptions this year because of resignations in the faculty and much credit is due Miss Curraleen Smith, the acting principal, for the fine executive ability she has shown in fulfilling the duties of the office. All the records are in good order and credit for this is due Miss Smith. The community should know something about its teachers who have given much of their lives in faithful devotion to the school. Miss Smith stands out very prominently in this list.

There was a large attendance, parents and friends of the graduates being present sufficient to fill all available space, a token of admiration and interest to the successful students.

EXCAVATION WORK IS NEARING CLOSE

Fair weather is suitable to contractors. Work of excavating for water mains on Second street, which will require some time, will record the close of this work, much to the satisfaction of the contractors and residents of the city. The finishing of the work south past Main street will enable the street paving work to be taken up without interruption. After Main street is passed, there will be nothing to hinder the start of the paving work except the failure of some machinery to arrive, and this is now coming in almost every day. One of the members of the sewer contracting firm said today that the work would have been finished several weeks ago had he been favored with good weather and plenty of workmen. During the months of February, March and April there were but few days that rain did not fall and the work interfered with. During the past three months more than one-third of the regular time has been lost, owing to rain.

LOCAL RESTAURANT

MOVES TO WINCHESTER

M. Stathias, manager of the Busy Bee restaurant, is moving his stock and fixtures to Winchester, where he and his brother, Gus Stathias, have conducted the City restaurant for many years. Mr. Stathias made many friends during his stay in Richmond who will regret to see him leave. He was delighted with Richmond and enjoyed a liberal patronage, but having to give possession of the building and being unable to get another, it was necessary for him to leave Richmond.

Little Girl Drowns

In Adair county last week, Henry Roberts attempted to cross Casey creek with a wagon and team of horses. In the wagon was his 12-year-old daughter. Mr. Roberts thought the stream was fordable, but he got into a whirlpool, and the girl and team were drowned. Mr. Roberts in an attempt to save his child, barely escaped with his own life. The body of the child was found not far from where the accident occurred. The lines of the horses were entangled about her body and it was lying between the two horses.

JETT FARM TO BE PUT UP FOR SALE

One of the biggest farm sales that will be held here this season will soon be announced by Col. James I. Hamilton, of Garrard county, who came over Monday and bought the Shelby Jett farm. This place contains about 107 acres and is located in what is considered by many as the best tobacco growing section of Madison county. Mr. Hamilton purchased the place from Mrs. Shelby Jett and her son, Covington Jett, who bought the place jointly at the time of settlement of the estate of the late Shelby Jett. It is understood that in making sale of the place it will be subdivided into small tracts, to which it is especially adapted. Mr. Hamilton has been one of the most successful land buyers and dealers in Central Kentucky the past several years, and his sale announcement will be awaited with much interest by those who are looking for some exceptionally good tobacco and general farming land, such as the Jett farm is known to be.

Swineboard, The Real Estate Man of Lancaster, has gotten out an attractive catalogue of a number of auction Sales of land, which he will place on the market this month. It also contains a description of about thirty farms he has for sale privately. Any one wanting to buy or sell farms, or other real estate, should write to Swineboard for one of these catalogues. Swineboard is known as the "sale wizard." Everyone likes to transact real estate business with him and his assistants, W. E. Moss and R. H. Dever.

ALL BUYING TAGS FOR BAND CONCERT

The Royal Scotch Highlanders Band which comes here Friday for the benefit of the Legion boys will play at the court house square at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and at 8 o'clock at night. The boys are selling thousands of tags, which their friends are buying, one color for the afternoon and the other for night. The proceeds go to furnishing a club house for the local post.

The Cynthia Democrat had this complimentary notice of the appearance of the band there:
"The Royal Scotch Highlanders Band gave their concert in Jones' new garage on Tuesday evening. Every member of the band is an artist and the concert was greatly enjoyed, especially the solos by Bobbie Brolier. The band came here under auspices of the Stephen B. Whalen Post."

A member of the local Legion post has sent The Daily Register the following poetry appropriate to the occasion:

Everybody is Coming

Are you coming?
Coming! When and where?
Why, Friday night to the courthouse square.

Folks are coming from all over the land

To hear the Royal Scotch Highlanders Band.

In fact, everyone is coming most, Because it is for the Jesse M. Dykes Post!

And you can't afford to miss this rare treat,

So buy a tag now and be sure of a seat.

Buy a tag for a friend or two

And help put a good cause through;

For we hope to raise the funds very soon

With which to equip this post with a nice club room,

So, that our comrades and pals through this region

May be justly proud of our post of the American Legion.

'SHINERS' STILL RIGHT HERE IN MADISON

Revenue Men Find Illicit Distillery on Green Clay's Farm, Near Town

Prohibition officers located a large moonshine still on the farm of Green Clay, about eight miles from Richmond, near the Lexington pike, about noon Friday and arrested three of Mr. Clay's tenants, who will have a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Warfield Bennett at once. The three men, E. C. Bowling, G. W. Shanks and Charles Hoskins, all protest their innocence and say they will be able to prove that they had nothing to do with it.

As the three Internal Revenue officers Rowan Sauley, Hugh Samuels, and J. M. Kavanaugh, approached a hollow a considerable distance from the house, and discovered the hiding place of the still, a man ran out from it. He was called upon to halt but did not do so and Mr. Samuels fired over his head, but this did not stop the fugitive. The officers, aided by Deputy Sheriff Sant Bush, then went to the still and destroyed it. No liquor was found. The three men who were working in tobacco fields nearby said they knew nothing of the still, were brought to town for a hearing before the U. S. Commissioner.

Mr. Clay was in town at the time of the raid. He makes his home in town and goes to his farm only occasionally to look after its management. It is understood that he has confidence in his tobacco tenants and has had very little trouble with any of them at any time.

WOMAN'S RECORD ON CHICKEN RANCH

While there are chicken fanciers galore, and producers of chickens who are receiving considerable attention in the poultry journals of the day, Madison county has a woman who can boast of a neat little bank account and a record for chickens that is equaled by few, although there has been nothing said about it, for the owner is seeking no notoriety.

Mrs. A. Moore, residing near College Hill, is the possessor of less than 150 chickens, yet she has evidence showing that since the first of the present year she has disposed of 500 dozen eggs up till June 1. This is not all, for Mrs. Moore stated modestly that forty dozen had been used for home consumption and again, speaking of eggs, she has incubated about 500. She also is the possessor of an account at the bank showing about $200 to her credit, all from eggs and chickens produced. Mrs. Moore has a systematized manner of selling her eggs, and did not dispose of them at fancy prices, she giving out the statement that they averaged but 37 cents per dozen. The count was kept accurately, since the chicken business is a specialty with her, and she was trying to find out something about the much mooted question, "Is there money in raising chickens?" Mrs. Moore says there is.

22,000-Mile Tread And Why They Are Exceptions

Worn Miller Tires are often exhibited with some sign like above.

Countless letters also reach us telling such mileage tales.

These are very pleasing. But we don't want users in general to expect miracles from Millers.

Service to Expect

Expect from Millers greater service than from any like-type tire. And 19 times in 20 you will get it.

Expect it to outserve any tire you put opposite, and it almost invariably will. Expect twice the mileage tires gave a few years ago, and they will doubtless do still better.

Expect tread wear 25 per cent better than from others and you'll not be disappointed.

But don't expect that Millers, under all conditions, can match some exceptional mileage.

Why Mileage Varies

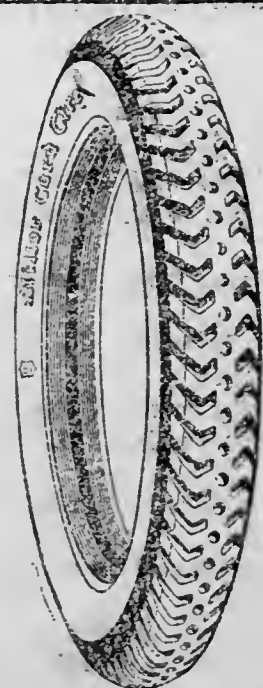

A Cord Tire gives vastly greater service than a Fabric Tire.

An oversize tire will vastly excel a tire that is undersize. Care, load and roads affect tire service greatly.

Millers are uniform tires. That is a major reason for their supremacy. But uniform tires will vary with conditions.

Political Announcements

For Congress
RALPH GILBERT, of Shelby County.
FRANK RIPPY, of Anderson county.

THE FUNNY BOYS ON THE JOB UP AT CHI.

Kentucky's own humorist, Tom Underwood, of the Hopkinsville New Era, publishes a symposium of what the funny boys are writing about the G. O. P. convention up at Chi. Most of the press dispatches from the Windy City seem to be of that class of literature. Here's what Tom has dug out of the various dispatches:

Ring's Threat
The humorists are swooping down on Chi. in droves, and already are clogging the wires with remarks, pertinent and impertinent. Ring Lardner is still running for president and brands the other candidates as "cheap stiffies" because they are staying at private homes and he's putting up at a swell hotel.

"Before the convention opens," writes Ring, "I want to make one more statement to my constituents, and that is, that if I am not nominated at the Republican convention and am not nominated at the Democratic convention, I will run on the Socialist ticket with Eugene Debs, who is now in jail, where most of the rest of the candidates ought to be."

Then and Now

Irvin Cobb begins his first pre-convention story by moistly recollecting that, at the last convention, the Kentucky delegation opened its headquarters with a corkscrew. Tempora mutantur. The national hymn is now "How Dry I Am."

W. J. B.

Which reminds us that W. J. Bryan, who is sometimes funny without being a humorist, is also on hand at the convention as a reporter, and one of the tribe declares he is "snooping around trying to swipe the Republican signals." Three innovations impress the Nebraskan as of large importance—(a) the presence of women as delegates; (b) the absence of saloons; (c) a new spirit of democracy. Lardner recalls an observation of Comedian Ed Wynn, who said Bryan is closely related to Washington and Lincoln. He lives in Lincoln and once went to Washington. Wynn obviously borrowed the wheeze from Mr. Dooley, who, way back in free silver days, said: "Bryan is related to Uncle Henry Cassaway Davis be his middle name."

Food and Drink

B. L. T. heads his column in the Chicago Tribune with the names of his favorites:

For vice president—Edwards.
For president—Hoover.
Platform—Entertainment for man and beast.

Beer, Fact and Fiction

Here's what occurs to Ring Lardner: "Hotels are putting hammocks in the revolving doors."

"Knox, Harding, Sprout and Hughes are laying back waiting for the office to seek the office boy."

"Most of the delegates have two favorites. The guy that bought 'em and the bird they're going to feed for."

"The Republicans have a son-in-law to balance McAdoo. Lowden is a son-in-law of Pullman. But he will never grab the upper berth vote."

DEATH OF REV. HUNTER

The Rev. J. G. Hunter, 80 years old, for 25 years pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Harrodsburg, and for eight years pastor emeritus of the Union church, a captain in the Confederate forces during the Civil war and one of the founders of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Louisville, is dead.

Until its consolidation, Rev. Hunter was a member of the board of trustees of the Eastern Kentucky Normal school. He was born in Maysville, graduated from Centre College in 1859 and after the war graduated in theology from Hampden-Sidney Theological Seminary. His first pastorate was in Georgetown. For many years he was on the board of directors of Central University, Richmond, before its consolidation with Centre College.

Dr. D. W. Scott has resigned as pastor of the First Christian church at Somerset.

At Chillicothe, Ohio, Layton Devolt, 17-year-old farmer boy of Adelphia, was found guilty of slaying his father.

SERVICE FIRST IS OUR AIM

WE WOULD APPRECIATE RECEIVING ANY SUGGESTIONS YOU MAY HAVE WHICH WOULD ENABLE US TO IMPROVE OUR SERVICE

"Service First" is our aim. In order to accomplish our aim, it is always necessary to improve our service from day to day. As we are but ordinary business men, there is always danger of reaching the point where we may think our service is perfect. Even though we do not think that our service is perfect, we may (because we are always so closely associated with it) be unable to see any way of improving our service.

The Richmond Welch Company is here because it wants to serve you. A store without customers would soon go out of existence. In other words, you are our stockholders and when we increase our efficiency and lower our operating expenses, we are able to pay you dividends in the form of lower prices and better service. The larger our sales, the less profit we must make on the amount of merchandise sold. By giving us suggestions for the improvement of our service you can readily see you are doing yourself a favor.

We are not asking you to become our customer just to help us. We know we can sell you the very best merchandise at a saving and this is why we believe we are entitled to your patronage.

We are having many new customers daily and all are highly pleased with the result of their visit. Why not visit us today and be convinced that "Service and Saving" will be your reward for becoming a customer of our Self-Serve Grocery?

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

TAKE

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

B. F. EDWARDS HAS INFORMATION CHART

A chart of the county, containing the name and location of every school, together with the teacher, the permanent and school address, etc., is one of the valuable possessions of B. F. Edwards, superintendent of the schools of Madison county, and a possession that is attracting considerable attention.

The chart contains all colored schools, as well as white, and is one of the most complete yet found. It is an "invention" of Mr. Edwards, and is believed to be the only one of the kind in the state. The attention of the local and state educational board members has been attracted by the readiness with which the county superintendent is able to put his ear to the telephone and communicate with almost any school in the county at a moment's notice, or to call the name and address of every instructor in the county at a moment's notice. Should accident or sudden illness befall any of the instructors, Mr. Edwards is enabled to give locations, addresses of homes and other data of an important nature. He has been extensively complimented upon the thoroughness and simplicity of the "information" chart, as he calls it.

INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOW FACTS

(By Associated Press)
London, June 9.—After a lapse of six years the International horse show will be revived at Olympia here, beginning June 16. Many new features have been added to the varied and lengthy program, and the prizes amounting in the aggregate to $50,000 will be awarded. In past years this annual function under royal patronage, proved to be of absorbing interest to horse lovers all over the world and this year's exhibition gives promise of being even more attractive to foreign owners of high-class thoroughbreds and show horses.

In all there are 101 classes. One novelty will be a Marathon drive for horses in single harness which will run over a course of 12 miles, finishing in the arena at Olympia.

Another interesting event will be the military ride, open to all British and foreign military officers on the active list, designed to bring out the essential requisites of a troop horse or charger, namely, steadiness, balance, and stamina, handiness and, above all, unconditional obedience. The ride commences at Aldershot, where competitors assemble in undress uniform on the Aldershot Steeplechase course. Here a circuit will be made in the course of which all the jumps, about 10, have to be negotiated.

OLDEST STUDENT HOME FROM SCHOOL

Man 66, Completes Special Course—License Held From Others Owing to Youth

Jeff Fannin has gone to Vanceburg and is home from school. Nothing so strange about this, except that Mr. Fannin recently celebrated his 66th birthday, and feels assured that his pupils—for he is a school teacher—will have the benefit of the finishing touches put on by ten weeks' special training he has just completed at the Eastern Normal.

Mr. Fannin enjoys the distinction of being the oldest student at the Eastern Kentucky State Normal; not only this, but has the reputation of being one of the best qualified teachers in the state of Kentucky; furthermore, Mr. Fannin is one of those rare personages who is not egotistical enough to believe that there is not yet plenty to learn. He dates upon being "up to the minute," so to speak, and this is his reason for coming to the local school to "whet up," on certain things, that might not have come his way should he have stayed at home; for he could have done so and yet been what he is today—one of the foremost instructors in the state and the possessor of a record for teaching school that is envied by many. It is one of his hobbies, it is said by those who know him well, to be thoroughly progressive, and he is aware of the fact that there is much progression at the Eastern Normal. The example being set by Mr. Fannin is a most excellent one and could be followed by many younger with great benefit. His attention to the most modern ideas in teaching has been attracting the State School Board members, who are said to have followed his most excellent record for a number of years. Mr. Fannin will teach at Quincy this year.

On the other hand, there are a number of graduates, or a number qualified to graduate, who will really do so, before they reach their 18th year. This represents the youngest class in school. Some of them will be deprived of their license to teach until their next birthday, when they will have reached their 18th year, which will legalize their license to teach. Some have finished the courses at school and have been graduated at a little past 16, however, the law requires that they must be 18 years of age before permitted to teach school. There will be licenses held up this year at the school, some until next November, owing to the youthfulness of some of the graduates. These, however, will be held by the management until the pupils have attained their 18th birthday, when the license to teach will be forwarded to them.

COUNTY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT BUSY

While practically all of the teachers have been chosen for the schools of Madison county, Superintendent B. F. Edwards is a very busy man these days, looking after the work of establishing the new instructors in the way of a change in assignments. There will be a number of changes and the selection of principals in some localities is yet to be taken up definitely. However, it is believed the choice will be made this week. There are a number of applicants for positions and there will not be a scarcity of timber. There will be a meeting of the members of the board in the near future when the charting of all instructors will be made, and the permanent assignments will be decided upon. Many of these have been made, only a small percent being held up for various reasons. The return of the grade papers is expected within a short time and this may have some bearing on the situation, since there are many who tried the examination for the first time and they are anxiously awaiting the result of the examining board.

DEAN IN RACE FOR JUDGE

Representative H. M. Dean, of Jackson county, is a candidate for judge of the Court of Appeals in the Fifth district. He filed his notification and declaration papers as a candidate on the Republican ticket with Secretary of State Vaughan. Judge Rogers Clay, commissioner of the court, is the announced Democratic candidate. Judge John D. Carroll, the incumbent, will open law offices when his term expires in January. He is not a candidate for re-election. Dean is well known in Madison county. He made a great fight for his pet dog law during the legislature, but lost.

Cabel Chenault, residing on the William Crutcher farm, west of the city, was in the city today, feeling pretty good. He was telling friends that he had out fifty acres of corn, which he had plowed over twice, and had all of his tobacco planted, and this year

LOYAL WOMEN AND GIRLS FILLING GAP

Take To Field and Will Save the Day, Also the Tobacco Crop
This Year in Kentucky

With the advent of favorable weather which has continued for a period of twelve days with little interruption by rain, the bulk of the tobacco crop in many sections of the state has been planted, and much of the credit is due the faithful hand taken by women and girls. Never before in the history of the state has the army of women workers been as extensive as this year, reports say. The dearth of labor became apparent with the arrival of favorable weather and the highest prices ever paid for tobacco planting were recorded. It is the belief of many that a good price will have to be realized by growers if they are to realize much profit on the crop this year.

In some localities, however, the crop is but started and there will be work along this line for several weeks, farmers state. In the vicinity of Forest Hill the crop is still mostly in the beds, but little planting having been effected.

The work has been hampered somewhat by the shortage of labor. Many women and girls have taken to the work and this answers the question to a great extent as to how the planting is being done. Miss Jala Wells, of Forest Hill, was in the city today and stated that "most of the girls in the neighborhood were to be found in the field these days, owing to the fact that the first weather favorable to setting tobacco plants was at hand, and there was a decided scarcity of men." According to the statement of Miss Wells, a great portion of the work there is being done this year by the women and girls who are filling the gap and saving the day.

EXAM. TO FILL P. O. VACANCY AT UNION

The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $246 for the last fiscal year.

Applicants must have reached their 21st birthday on the date of the examination, and must reside within the territory supplied by the post office for which the examination is announced. The examination is open to all citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements.

C. Applications should be properly executed and filed with the commission at Washington at the earliest practical date.

INCOME TAX DUE SAY NEW NOTICES

Big List on Record From Richmond and Business Reported As Flourishing Here

Notices are being received in Richmond from the State Revenue office notifying them of the fact that the quarterly installment of income tax for the year 1919, will be due next Tuesday, June 15, and, to prevent congestion, it is suggested reports be made by mail. There are many explanations being sent out from here by those who have paid their taxes in full, and who do not understand the notices being sent them. They feel that they have committed an error, perhaps, and several letters asking for more detailed information are en route to the Capital City.

The notice states that in case full payment has been made, the notice now received may be disregarded; however, to be on the safe side, a number of business men are making inquiries.

"There are so many changes in the laws nowadays," said one of them, "and so many new laws going into effect that I prefer to play safe, and am writing for more information just for my own satisfaction."

There is an extensive list of income taxpayers in Richmond, according to the records; and reports will show that business generally in the city is in a flourishing condition. One man, upon being asked regarding business, replied that it was good, and he was not expecting nor asking a better business than he has enjoyed during the first half of the present year. Another said that his tax payments were far in excess of those of last year, as a result of increased business and the third one approached admitted payment of his tax in full "to get it off his hands," as he explained, his business justifying an increase which was made in his taxes and which he cheerfully paid.

NEW CHAPTER IN SILVER MINE MYSTERY

Another chapter in the old Swift silver mine mystery was written by the Court of Appeals at Frankfort, when it decided in favor of Hudson & Collins, of Lexington, a suit against C. B. McGuire, appealed from the Lee circuit court, in which it held that Michael Casto, who had heard of the lost silver mine and went to Oklahoma to consult an old Indian chief in regard to it, had no right to the oil under the land, though he had leased the mineral rights.

It developed that the chief gave Casto a chart on which the supposed silver mine was located on the farm of John Fraley, and Casto spent several years in search of the mine, finally abandoning the hunt. The Casto heirs sold their lease of the mineral rights to McGuire, and Hudson and Collins bought the interest of J. R. Fraley, son of the original owner of the land. The question before the court was whether the mineral rights referred to in Casto's lease included oil. The court ruled that it did not include oil, and the oil lease of Hudson & Collins, therefore, stands.

The tragedy in the story, from the Casto standpoint, was that treasure lay under the land all the time he was searching for it, but it was in the form of oil and not of silver, so far as discovered.

Today Frank K. Kavanaugh, who has been connected with the State Library for more than 30 years, retired as State Librarian to give the place to Mrs. Grace Garrett Hendrix, of Winchester.

TO INVESTIGATE TOBACCO PRICES

Washington, June 7—The Federal Trade Commission will investigate the price paid by tobacco companies for loose leaf tobacco on the last market to determine comparative depreciation in prices of tobacco on loose leaf floors and of the manufactured product and the cause of decline in prices paid for loose leaf.

Authorization for this investigation was given by House when it passed a resolution introduced by Representative W. J. Fields, of the Ninth Kentucky district, and reported favorably by the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

The resolution provides that the commission report to the House and the Department of Justice on this investigation, on or before the first Monday in December, 1920.

In speaking of his resolution, Representative Fields said loose leaf tobacco had been forced below cost of production by what he described as a "tobacco trust."

The Kentuckian declared that composing the trust of which he complained were the American Tobacco Company, Liggett and Myers, the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, and the P. Lorillard Tobacco Company. He added that he was unable to explain their organization.

Mr. Fields said that although there was no overproduction in 1919, natural leaf tobacco was selling at its lowest price in ten years, while there had been no decline in the price of the manufactured product.

PAINS NEARLY DOUBLED ME UP

Nothing Helped Me Until I Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wyandotte, Mich.—"For the last four years I have doctored off and on without help. I have had pains every month so bad that I would nearly double up. Sometimes I could not sweep a room without stopping to rest, and everything I ate upset my stomach. Three years ago I lost a child and suffered so badly that I was out of my head at times. My bowels did not move for days and I could not eat without suffering. The doctor could not help me and one day I told my husband that I could not stand the pain any longer and sent him to the drug-store to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and threw the doctor's medicine away. After taking three bottles of Vegetable Compound and using two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash I could do my own housework. If it had not been for your medicine I don't know where I would be today and I am never without a bottle of it in the house. You may publish this if you like that it may help some other woman."—Mrs. M. A. R. STENDER, 120 Orange St., Wyandotte, Mich.
